"Mrs. Poskas is my hero. She put me on the right path."

-Anonymous Student Expressing A Common THS Sentiment

Meanwhile, back on the ranch...

//
"She actually cares about people and their futures..."

The number of Tazewell High School teachers deserving a yearbook dedication totals infinity; we find examples in our diligent mentors and wave goodbye to THS with the reflections of heroes paving our paths. When we students recall our days in high school, we will remember not only our education's technicality but the relationships that helped us wade through our work. How could an annual staff possibly select only one educator a year for the dedication's honor? Several specifics accompanied by immense gratitude and admiration led us to dedicate the 2002 edition of The Peak to Mrs. Rose Poskas.

Mrs. Poskas always offers herself willingly on personal and professional levels without either sugar-coating reality or rubbing salt in difficulty's wounds. Many students have used the phrase "tough love" when describing her unique teaching style, and no one overlooks that ever-present sense of humor which always partners her speech. During the difficult period after Mr. Hutchinson's death, Mrs. Poskas willingly took upon herself the task of preparing math students for college courses. Many returning students have commented on the ease of their transition into college due to Mrs. Poskas's ability to impart her deep knowledge of mathematics. She graduated from Tazewell High School where her class flower appropriately was the yellow rose. She obtained a Bachelor's Degree at Radford and will receive her Master's Degree from Virginia Tech in the spring. In addition,

Mrs. Poskas has taken classes from Wake Forest and the University of Virginia. Distinguished as these accomplishments are, they cannot surpass her natural aptitude toward imprinting information in students' minds. Mrs. Poskas's techniques? She maintains a disciplined but jovial working environment, presents and explains comprehensive notes, and students who arrive for her class unprepared live in healthy fear. The quality that students appreciate most out of the many, however, is that "She actually cares about people and their futures and not just their casual contentment."

So, have you gotten the "deer in the headlights" look yet? Try the "five-cent definition" of Mrs. Rose Poskas: the classic example of a teacher and a lady.

"Reflection"

MATTHEW WILDER AND DAVID ZIPPEN
SUNG BY CHRISTINA AGUILERA FOR DISNEY'S MULAN

Look at me
You may think you see who I really am
But you'll never know me
Everyday it's as if I play a part
Now I see if I wear a mask I can fool the world
But I cannot fool my heart
Who is that girl I see staring straight back at me?
When will my reflection show who I am inside?
I am now in a world where I have to hide my heart and what I believe in
But somehow I will show the world what's inside my heart
And be loved for who I am
There's a heart that must be free to fly
That burns with a need to know the reason why
Why must we all conceal
What we think
How we feel?
Must there be a secret me I'm forced to hide?
I won't pretend that I'm someone else for all time
When will my reflection show who I am inside?

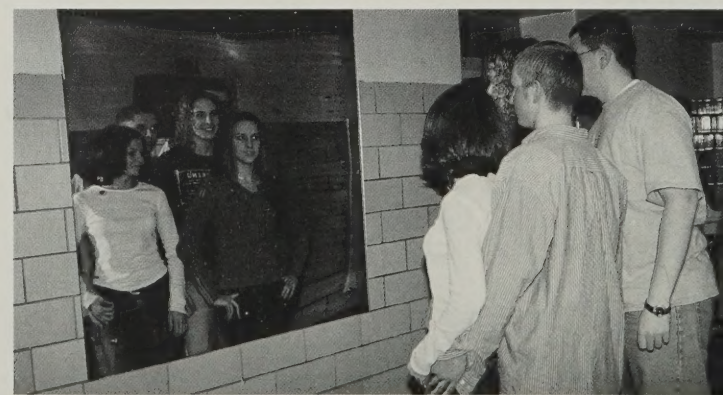

A mirror attempt shattered in failure.
Varying the focus angle might help the overall effect.

Erin's strategy of angling her compact gives h eyes in the back of her head, in a sense.

"Do we sort of form a human palindrome?"

Students become a reflective experiment posing by the mirror.

The magnificent and awe-inspiring view from the height of the Peak - a picturesque field often taken for granted by many.

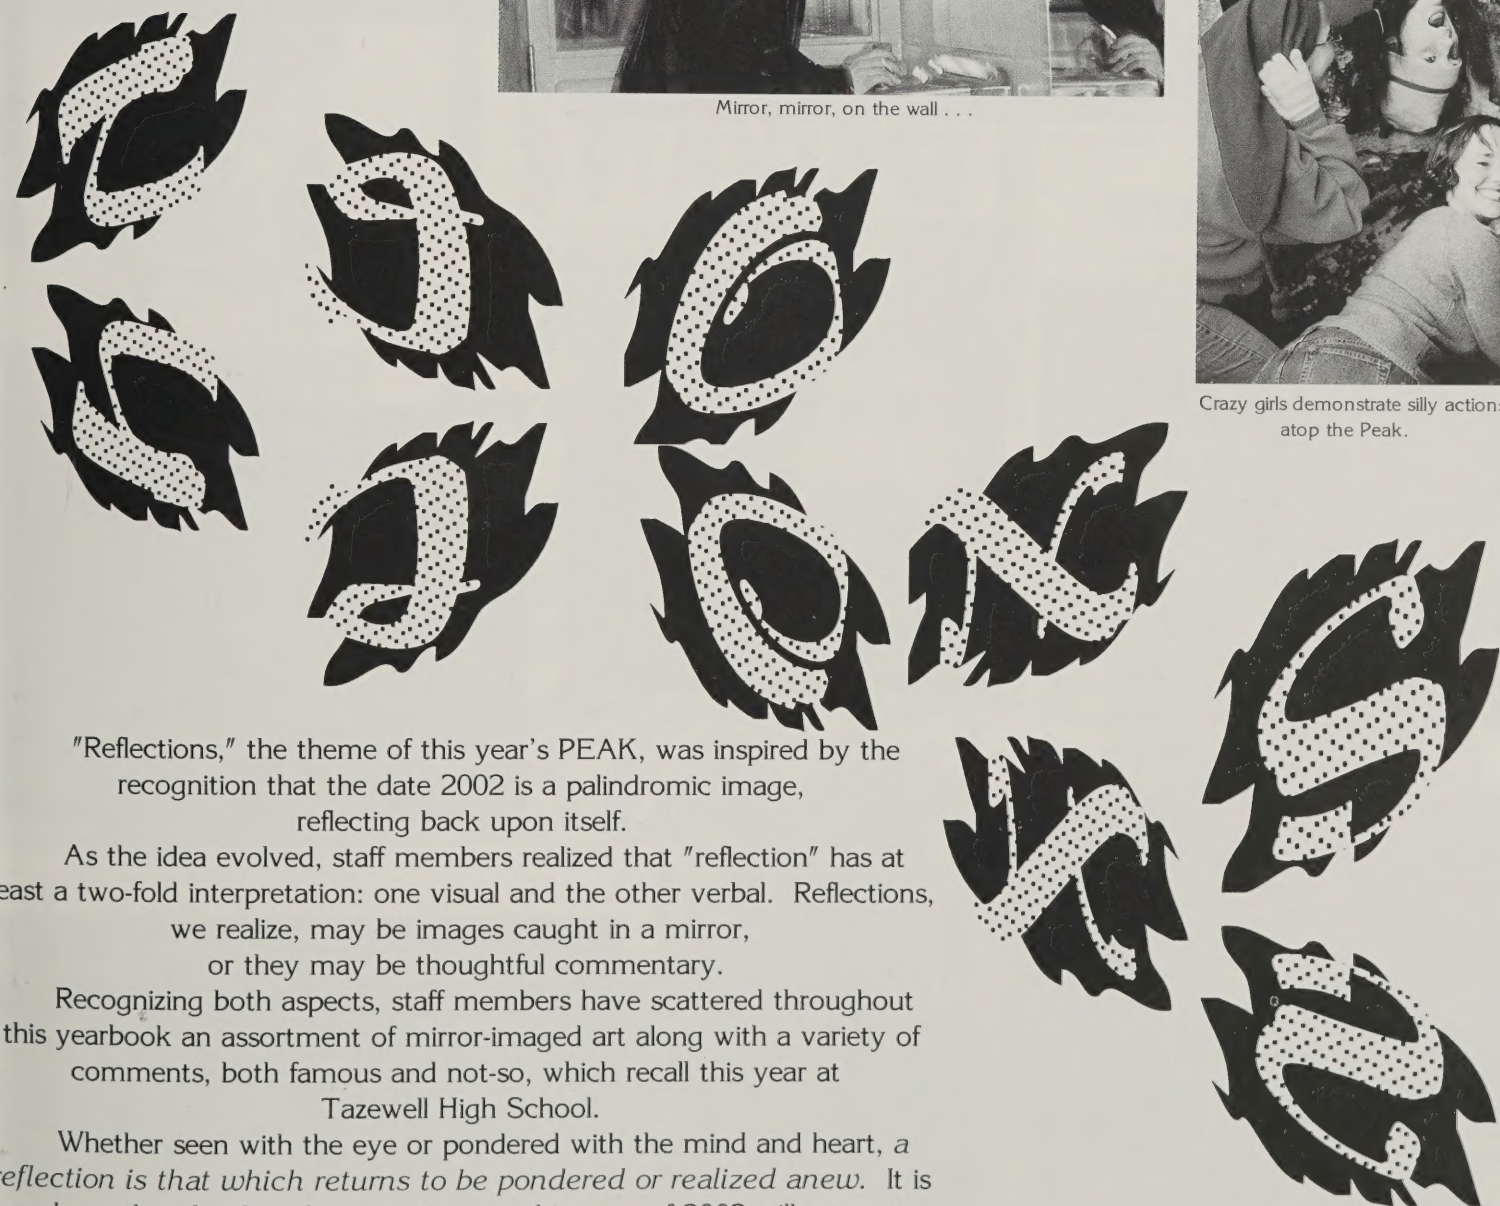

Reflections on friendship.

Mirror, mirror, on the wall . . .

Crazy girls demonstrate silly actions atop the Peak.

"Reflections," the theme of this year's PEAK, was inspired by the recognition that the date 2002 is a palindromic image, reflecting back upon itself.

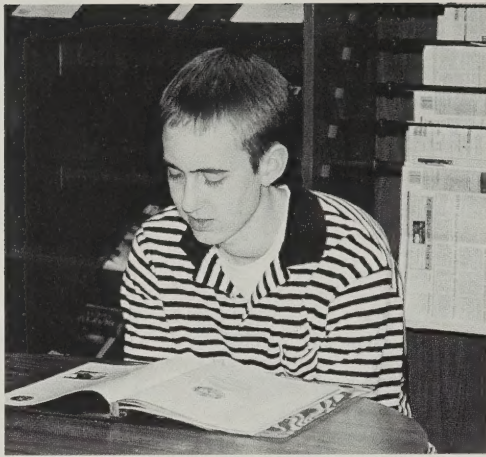

As the idea evolved, staff members realized that "reflection" has at least a two-fold interpretation: one visual and the other verbal. Reflections, we realize, may be images caught in a mirror, or they may be thoughtful commentary.

Recognizing both aspects, staff members have scattered throughout this yearbook an assortment of mirror-imaged art along with a variety of comments, both famous and not-so, which recall this year at Tazewell High School.

Whether seen with the eye or pondered with the mind and heart, a reflection is that which returns to be pondered or realized anew. It is our hope that the thoughts, emotions, and images of 2002 will return to you through the pages of The PEAK.

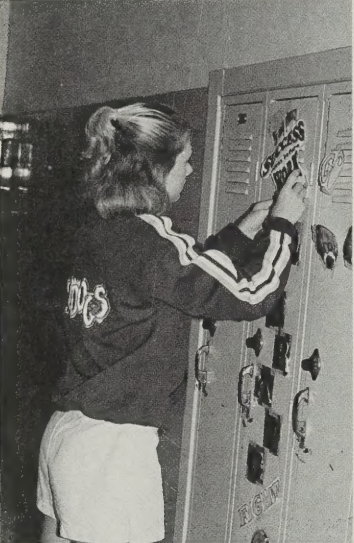

Once again, the Annual Staff camera candidly captures unsuspecting suspects who wouldn't think of posing.

Serious studying is sometimes practiced at T. H. S.

Fun in the fiber optics room.

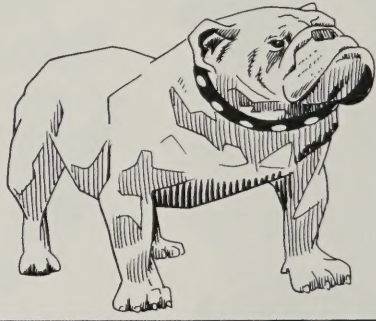

Cheerleaders happily decorate the school in the morning.

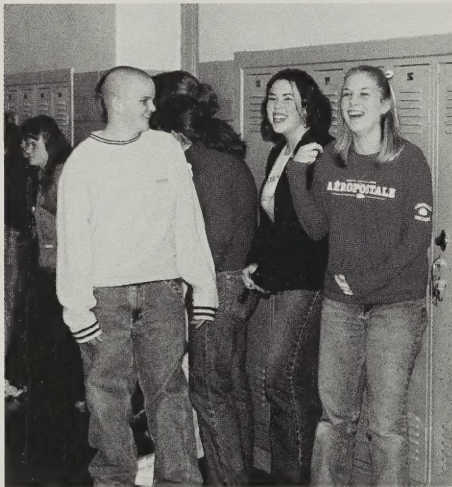

Students file out to the triangle for a practice fire drill, which is a nice break during sunny weather.

"Where's our teacher?"

"Are you looking at me?"

Hallway conversation between classes makes the day go by fast.

Sigh. Another day at T. H. S. Seniors would say "Enjoy it while it lasts."

Feeling peppy today? A demonstration of cheering on the dawgs during a pep rally.

Friends Kat and Cat help each other paint..

Oh no! Where's the "O?"

Happily studying? We know Suzie sees the camera.

Caught snitching.

Hot ladies cool off.

"YUM..."

"No way! You're kidding!"
"No, I'm really not."

Chilling with past and future T. H. S. grads at a football game.

Various activities, including listening to music, occur during the wait for buses.

Alma Mater

Where mountains stand so boldly,
Where skies are always bright,
Our Alma Mater lifts her head and sings her strength and might.
We lift our eyes unto the hills to see the Tazewell High
They give us strength to love and serve the school whose name we carry

O Tazewell High, we love thee
Our Alma Mater dear.
For you we stand and sing our song of praise for all to hear.
We love thee, Tazewell High School,
Your light forever shines.
It shines to guide and keep us near the dear old school of mine.

What is a symbol? Asking those people associated with Tazewell High School, one might hear, "The Peak. It has always represented stability and achievement," or perhaps "The bulldog, of course! Who wants to mess with our 'dawgs'?" Another probable response might be, "Dr. G. firmly stands as the backbone of Tazewell High School, maintaining ethical and purely human principles: character, dignity, and ability to find life's enjoyment." Tazewell High School owns many emblems because its merits are worthy of symbolism. The letters "T.H.S." themselves represent something wonderful: a school with prominent, substantial, and well-practiced values.

It's Tazewell High

It's Tazewell High

The pride of every

Come on, you old

Come join us young lads,
It's Tazewell High
School now we cheer.
Now is the time,
boys, to make a big noise,
no matter what the people say.
For there's none to fear, the gang's all here,
So hail to Tazewell
High School,
HAIL!

//

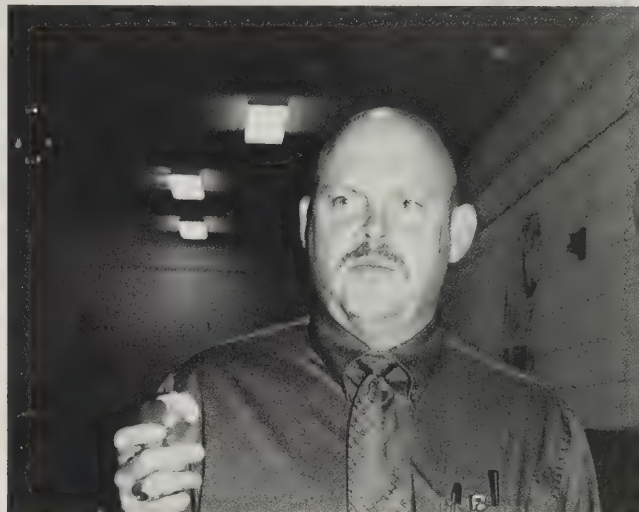

"I sit here in this office and look up...the enormity of it...the symmetry of it...the circle of life philosophy...it's this: I think not only of the size and strength of the hills; I think of raising our eyes to the heavens, of looking forward, behind, and around us. As a student, I never fully appreciated the beauty of Tazewell High School...I have been to the Catskills, Rockies, the Alleghenies...there's just something about these old hills that provides comfort and shelter. We need to stop and enjoy them once in awhile. These hills are reflected in the history, heritage, and strength of the people."

The Peak Staff

Editors Kate Altizer and Sarah Bowen lean on each other for balance.

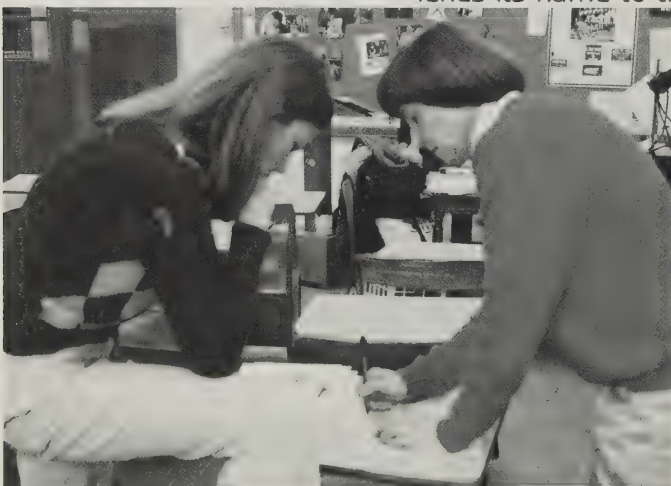

"There has to be a donkey in here somewhere!"

The Peak provides inspiration and stability and lends its name to the T.H.S. yearbook.

"These are a few of my favorite things."

36 Rule number one: Mrs. McPherson is always right.

Coffee, grease pencils, and draft sheets are three items that Annual Staff Members hold dear to their over-worked hearts. Their job, The 2002 Peak's production, requires infinite diligence and patience, and Mrs. Patricia McPherson never fails to hold Staffers to their task. The Photojournalism class officially began the year with a sale of Yearbook ads, which appear in the this book's last pages, and they developed the theme as early as last spring. The 2002 theme, "Reflections", is the result of many contemplating, preparing, and unquestionably scheming minds. When the physical construction of The Peak actually commenced, page designing, picture cropping and stickering, and computer frustrations occupied the scrambling Staffers.

Among all the bustle, they must find timely intervals for organizational and motivational staff meetings, cover selection, and, of course, lunch! The 2002 Peak Staff aspires for nothing less than a comprehensive, useful, and entertaining annual, but any individuals who spend a period with the class must fear for their sanity.

PHOTOJOURNALISM: IT'S HOW YEARBOOKS HAPPEN!

Brandy and Lindsey wonder if a Sprite will help.

Heidi gets creative.

Staff members get first peak at senior pictures.

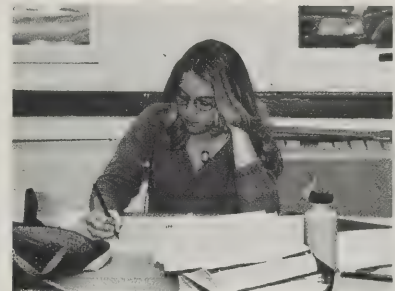

"A photo is worth a thousand words and makes memories last forever." - Andrea Cole Sharina helps with underclass picture day.

Photojournalism is such serious business!

Creative design occupies Andrea's mind.

"It is my intention to present - through the medium of photography - intuitive observations of the natural world which may have meaning to the spectators." - Ansel Adams

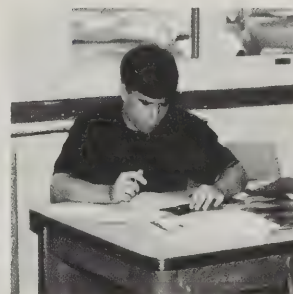

Cooperation is the key.

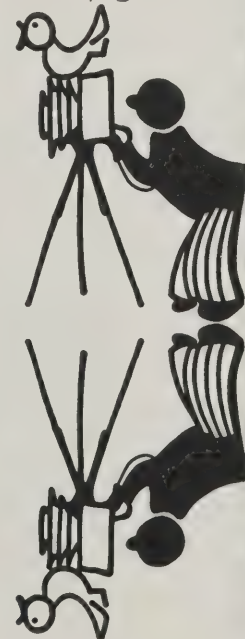

"Eeny, meeny, miney mo," Cat decides which picture will go."

We could not get our pictures without Mrs. Mc.

Lindsey gives Vanessa a card for her picture.

Brandy discovers the joy of keeping students in line for pictures.

Wow, I hope our annual is this good!

Junior Carrie Perdue, team captain, listens closely to the questions.

Team coaches, Ms. Pruitt and Ms. Light, go over last-minute decisions before "the big match"

"We are gonna be here forever!"
- Sarah Bowen

Senior Kate Altizer relaxes on the bus before competition.

Junior Robert Hula knows that having fun is the most important key to success.

"Jason, tie your shoes."
- Mrs. Light

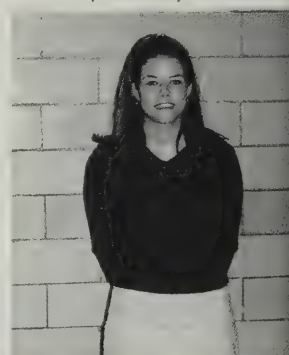

Junior Courtney Cecil wonders, "Who makes up these questions?"

Sophomore Lance Mullins gives the competition his game face.

Senior Catherine Rinehart shows her patriotic side.

Junior Lindsey Jones hangs out in the halls.

Junior Amanda Lane gets psyched before playing.

"Quit quoting people!"
- Jason Perdue

Senior Sarah Bowen remembers the good times.

The VHSL Academic Team competes once annually with Grundy, Richlands, Graham, and Carroll County. Southwest Virginia Community College hosted the competition on January 23. RHS defeated the team in the first round but Tazewell subsequently beat CHS and GHS. RHS won again, but the score was close. Coach Light was pleased and proceeded to say this year was the best Tazewell had ever done at the scholastic bowl. All team members should be proud.

 - Helen Keller*

Tazewell County Career & Technical Center is dedicated to preparing students for successful employment and developing their lifelong learning abilities. Emphasis is placed on academic and technical preparation for entry to post-secondary education and/or the workplace.

Each program stresses math, science, communication, critical thinking, problem solving, and cooperative learning skills. The overall curriculum is a collaboration of academics taught at the home high school, and vocational/technical skills taught at this center. Tazewell County Career & Technical Center also offers adult education to provide opportunities to gain basic learning skills and/or prepare for a GED certificate.

"TEACHERS SPREAD LIGHT TWO WAYS: THEY ARE THE CANDLE OR THE MIRROR THAT REFLECTS IT"

"There are three things to remember when teaching: know your stuff; know whom you are stuffing; and then stuff them elegantly."

- Lola May

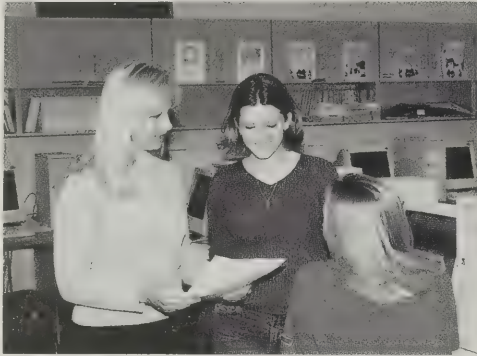

Teachers take it all in stride.

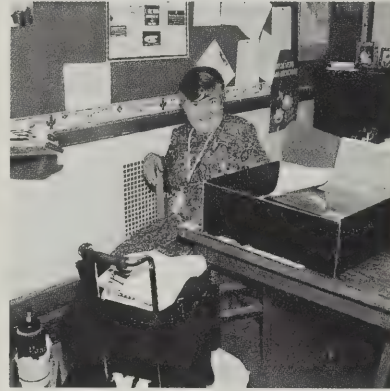

Teachers can be playful - or just dyslexic.

"What the teacher is, is more important than what he [or she] teaches."

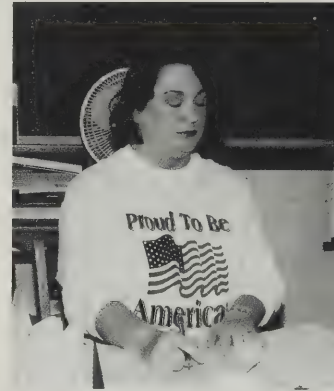

- Karl Menniger

For cheerful assistance, ask your teacher!

Teachers never have empty desks.

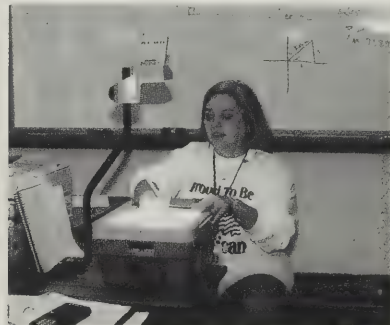

Teachers work in their sleep.

"The mediocre teacher tells. The good teacher explains. The superior teacher demonstrates. The great teacher inspires."

- William A. Ward

Proud to be Americans... "Dawgs" ...teachers!

Teachers are technology experts.

Teachers occasionally toot their own horns.

"Those who educate children well are more to be honored than even their parents, for these only give them life; those the art of living well."

- Aristotle

Coaches are teachers too!

Good teachers are never alone.

"I am not a teacher, but an awakener."

- Robert Frost

"A student is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. It is enough for the student to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master."

- Matthew 10: 24-25

The Senior Beta Club is an age-old tradition at Tazewell High School. Members must have a minimum 3.5 GPA to be admitted. This long-standing club is devoted to academic excellence as well as community service. Every member of the club is responsible for service projects. Each year the club sponsors a blood drive, and this year they also sold pins for the disaster relief in New York. The club also sponsors the annual Beta Bowl, an academic trivia competition.

Mary and Josh consider possible Beta activities for this year.

Brittani shows her enthusiasm over Junior Beta.

Like the Beta Club, Junior Beta is an organization for honor students who meet requirements of scholarship and service. About twice a month, Junior Beta meets at 7:30 A.M. to discuss how to best serve the community. President Carrie Perdue conducts each meeting and Secretary Beth Hunter keeps track of everyone's ideas and suggestions. Treasurer Mary Thompson keeps a record of the group's finances, and Vice President Michael Rinehart heads committees. Every member is an active participant, contributing ideas and information and keeping an eye open for opportunities to serve, in Tazewell or around it. The juniors have hopes of attending the annual Beta conference next spring as seniors.

Being a Beta advisor is weary work.

"I think it should be held after school - 7:30 A.M. is too early!"

- Megan Lutz

"Junior Beta is an honor."

"It's worth the time and effort; you serve your community, plus, colleges like that kind of thing."

The F.B.L.A. continues to be one of Tazewell High's most active clubs. This organization exists in support of, and complement to, classroom business courses. It attempts to provide opportunities for students to develop added career-related skills. The F.B.L.A. applies organizational and fund-raising skills in its sponsorship of the Miss T.H.S. Pageant, and in delivery of candy-grams to support Project A.S.K., which works against childhood cancer. Other charitable causes are supported by the annual coat drive which netted over 100 coats this year, and by "adoption" of a needy family. Finally, some F.B.L.A. projects, such as door-decorating contests and the perennially award-winning Homecoming float, are meant simply to contribute to school spirit. Thanks, F.B.L.A.!

FCCLA is a nonprofit national vocational student organization for young men and women in family and consumer sciences education. It provides opportunities for active participation at local, state, and national levels.

Throughout the school year, students work to prepare their projects for state leadership and recognition competition in the spring. These projects are focused on starting one's own business, job skills, applied technology, career investigation, chapter service projects, and a national Stop the Violence campaign.

This Christmas, each FCCLA class adopted a child to give them a special holiday season.

These DECA members (named in the caption above) are also in the Marketing CO-OP program.

The DECA organization exists to assist students as they prepare to enter the workplace as productive citizens. Its members are students of marketing-related classes. The related CO-OP program is for those who work in the community in affiliation with their marketing classes. DECA has sponsored several fundraising projects for charitable causes as well as in preparation for their trip to state competition in Richmond. Members have sold football beads, snacks and other items. They have started fund drives to assist the Substance Abuse and Recovery Association, and the September 11 Relief Effort. They gave a Halloween party for special-needs children and provided Thanksgiving dinners to several families. This group has been active in serving the needs of the community in which they live and work.

REFLECTING ON THE FALL SPORTS SEASON

Despite its 3-7 record, Bulldog Football again offered a season of excitement and enjoyment for fans. The Dawgs had many players to receive Southwest District Honors: SWD First Team: Freddie Sparks. He was also honored as All Region IV Second Team. SWD Second Team: Chase Buchanan, Josh Thompson, Adam Evans, Carr Blankenship, and Matt Black. Honorable Mention: Brandon Sheets, Ryan Hankins, Jake Graham, Craig Beavers, Joe Beasley, and Brack Brown.

"The team gave a tremendous effort and we saw a lot of positive things happen."
Coach Harris Hart

The 2001 Tazewell High School Girls' Basketball season was one of challenge. Losing the two leading scorers, Peyton Justus to graduation and Carrie Perdue to injury, the team was left without solid leadership. The team turned to their underclassmen for guidance. Junior Allison Havens led the team in scoring. Sophomore Shelly Cecil was the team leader in defensive statistics and earned her a position on SWD First Team. The final record was 4-16.

"Next season promises to be an improved one, with returning experience."
- Coach Jennifer Lowe

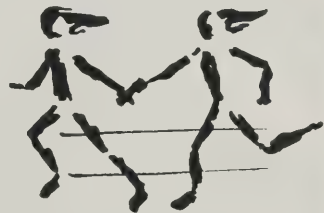

2001 golf team showed a strong effort this season. As a team their overall record was 16-24 and they were ranked 4th in the Southwest District. Top-seeded players include Craig Odum, Brad Yacenda, Willie Morefield, Stephen Baldwin, and Kenneth Holmes. Craig and Brad qualified for regionals and played at Forest Oaks Country Club in Martinsville.

"We were a young team but we showed steady improvements throughout the year."
- Coach Jay Perdue

The cross-country team had a great year. The boys won the Southwest District title and finished fourth in the region, which qualified them for the state meet. Grant Altizer, Robert Hula, Lance Hurley, Michael Rinehart, Randy Waddell were all state participants.

The girls finished second in the SW District and fifth in the region. Catherine Rinehart earned state honors.

"As a first year coach, I couldn't have asked for a better team."
- Coach Shae Compton

Our cheerleaders once again did a phenomenal job. They dazzled crowds at football games with a combination of cheers, dances, and gymnastics. The girls decorated Witten Stadium for every home game, adorned the players' lockers, and brightened THS hallways with banners and posters. Through planning pep rallies and offering continual support, these girls raised school-spirit at THS. Great job, ladies!

"Even though our football record wasn't as successful as hoped, the girls never stopped supporting them".
- Coach Melissa Thompson

Remember when we were little and we used to hit around the balloons and try not to let it drop, remember that game?!? Let's pretend we are little, and once again, let's not let the balloon drop, and let's get this game, ladies!

Ladies, this game is all we have, and this game is all we have left. Let's do it for the team, let's do it for the season, let's do it for the memories, and let's do it for the game.

BULLDOG WRESTLING

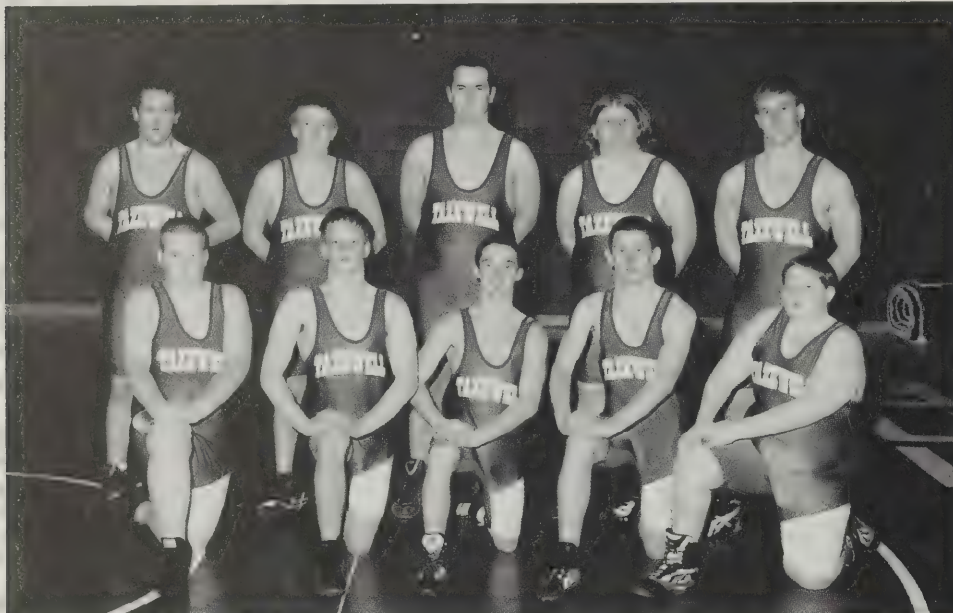

Team captains Beasley, Hurley, and Thompson show their muscle.

Head Coach Charles Burton is joined by assistant Barry Boothe, both former Bulldog wrestlers.

SENIORS:
Josh Thompson and Joe Beasley

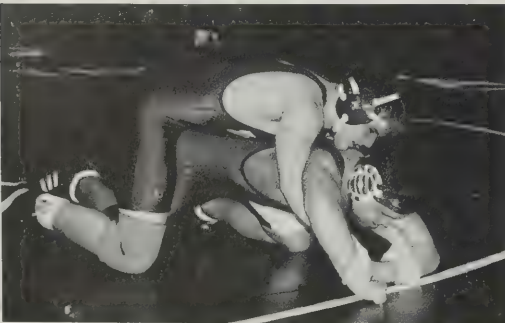

TEAM MEMBERS:

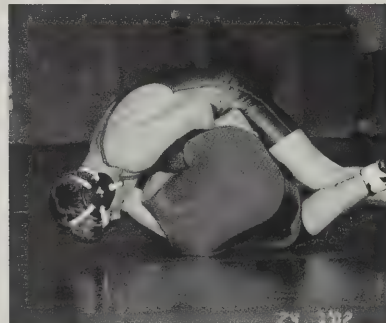

Row 1: David Patterson, Joe Beasley, Lance Hurley, Brandon McDaniel, David Sanders; Row 2: Allen Griffith, Tony Sanders, Travis Sanders, Steven Looney, Joshua Thompson.

It's not the fall that hurts;
it's the sudden stop."

This unbreakable grip is typical of the ferocious style that made Josh an impressive wrestler.

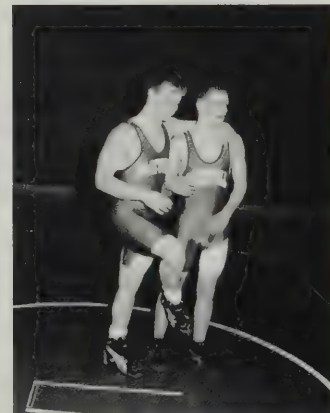

Beaz rolls another opponent on his way to a successful senior year.

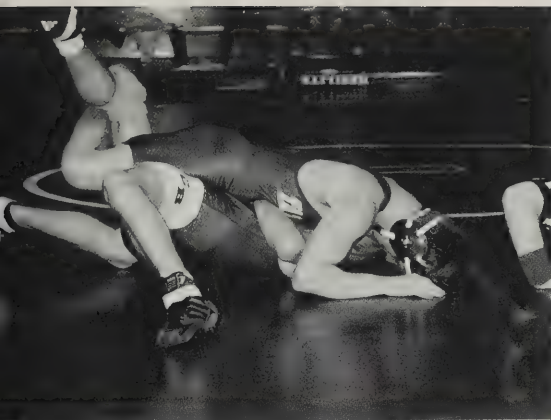

It's all about strength and sportsmanship.

"We may take the mat one at a time, but we're in this as a team."

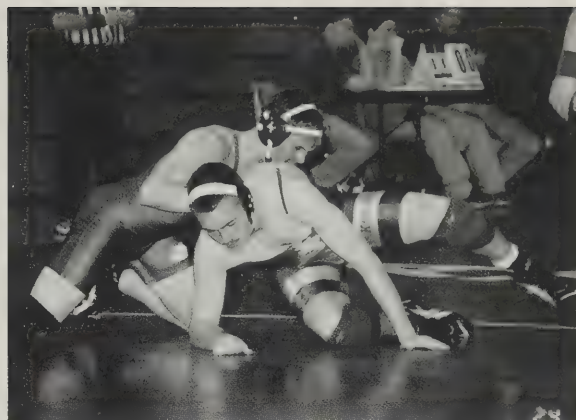

"Just getting in touch with our 'softer side,' Coach!"

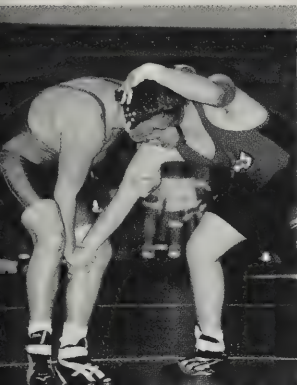

Joe puts a Blue Devil's shoulders to the mat.

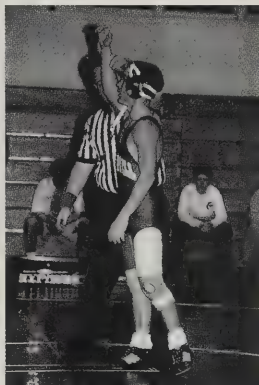

Looney gets into his intimidation stance.

"Getting up? I don't think so!"

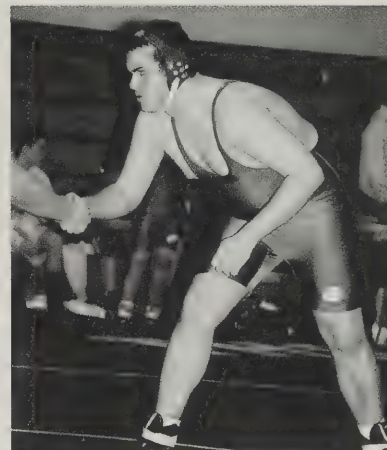

Griffith tries to "dis-arm" his man.

The wrestler's favorite pose.

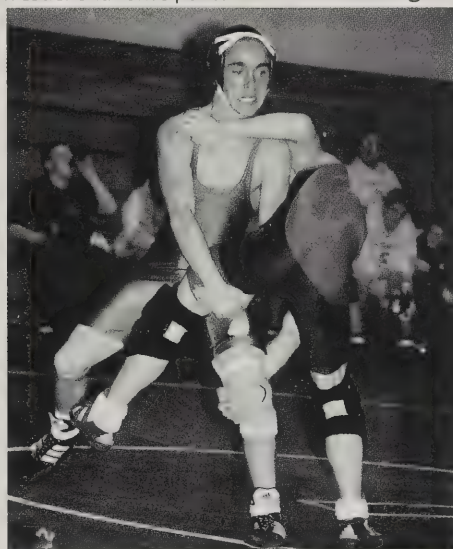

McDaniel gets "a-head" in this match.

Travis uses the handshake to stare down the opposition.

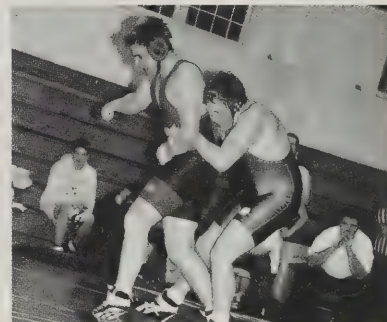

Wrestlers are more than a bit acrobatic, as Joe's opponent shows us.

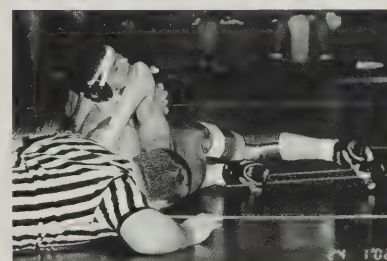

The fall won't hurt, but get ready for the sudden stop!

Brandon's opponent shows us the agony of defeat.

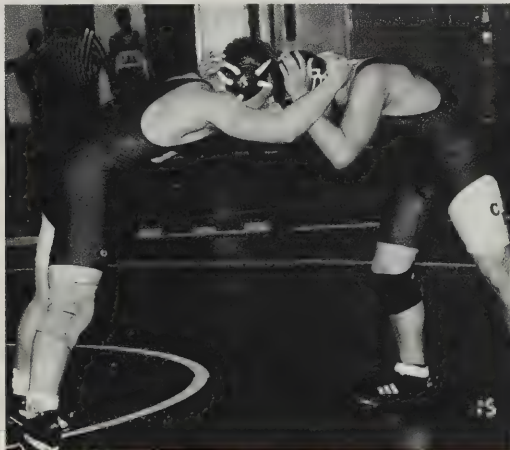

Don't let him escape, Allen!

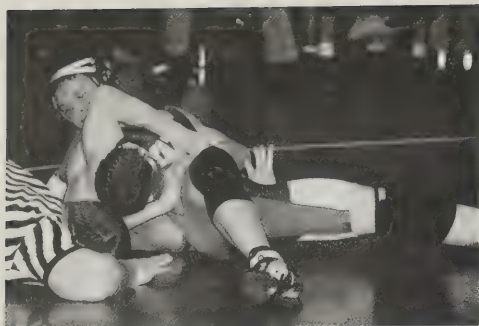

Taking it on the chin for a good cause.

Seniors Beasley and Thompson illustrate how to use your head in this sport.

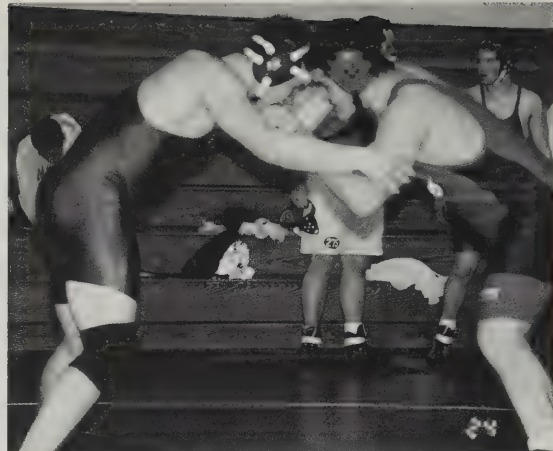

A little encouragement from the bench never hurts.

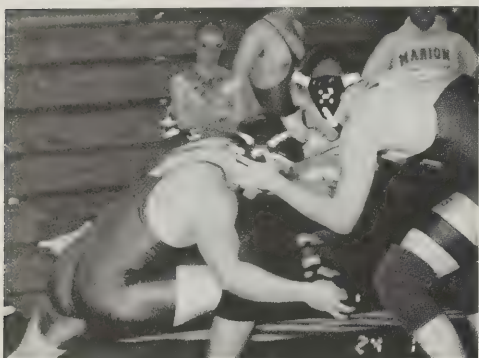

Brandon is about to add six big points for the Dawgs.

Head to toe, Lance grabs hold.

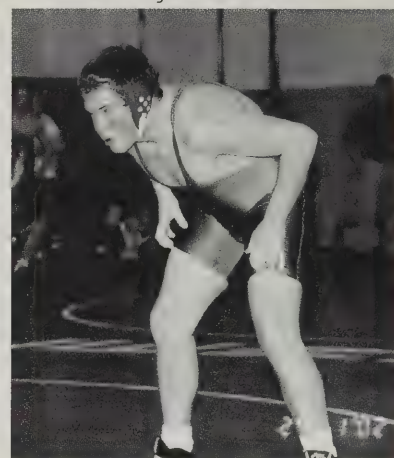

Thompson tackles the job head-on.

Josh shoots for the takedown.

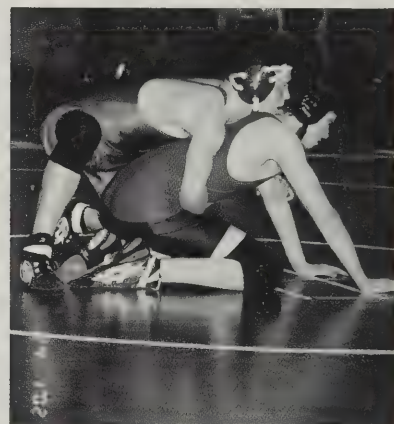

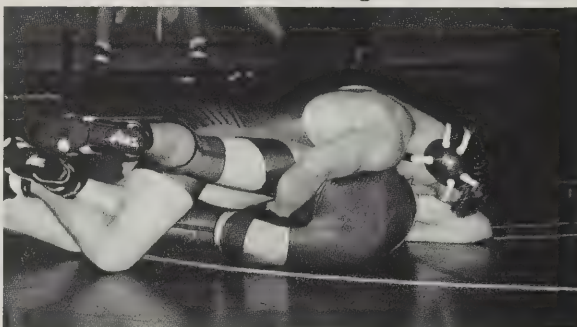

We learned this from the watching the cheerleaders!

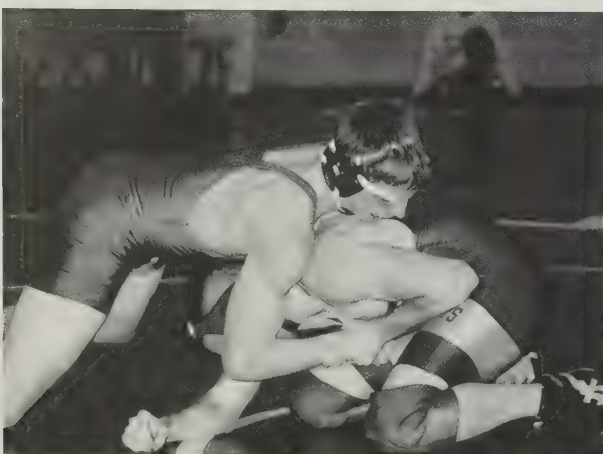

"Go ahead; make your move!"

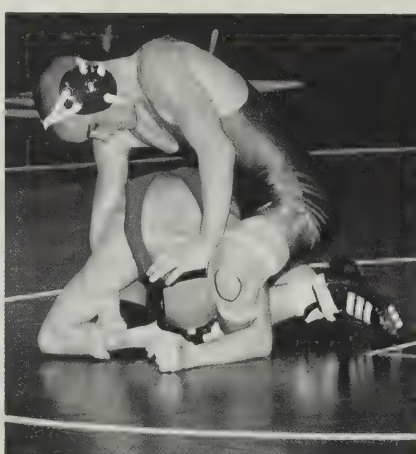

You can't keep a good man down. . . . as Beasley proves by the end of the match.

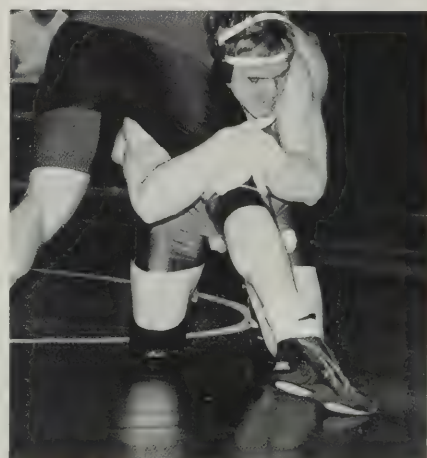

Top man McDaniel gets set to move on the whistle.

Joe's man tries to retreat into his shell.

A Sharky attack has this guy's face in the mat.

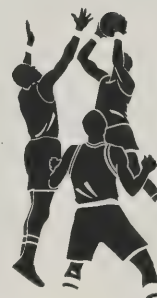

"I think I'll just take this leg."

" Going to State was awesome - it was worth every minute of training and sweating and toughing it out for the past four years." - Senior Wrestler Joe (Beaz) Beasley

REFLECTING ON THE WINTER SPORTS SEASON

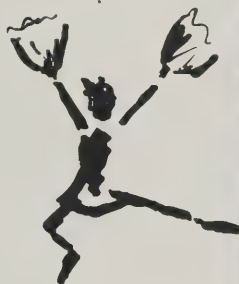

Our basketball guys played hard all season long and if given a few more breaks, could have won more games. With five sophomores and one freshmen having been moved up from the J.V. this team was young. J.V. also only had two players returning from last year. Lacking experience, they fought and fought throughout the season, gaining tremendous confidence in themselves. Coach Walker feels that if they stick together as a team they will be a very good team when their time comes to move up to the varsity level.

"We had a pretty good season considering that the team only had four returning players."
-Coach Walker

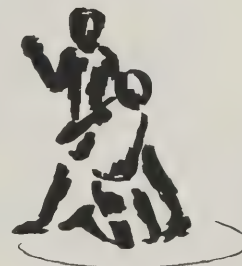

What would T.H.S. be like without our wonderful cheerleaders? For the basketball season, these girls again offered continuous support to athletes by cheering at home and away games, decorating the players' lockers, and planning pep rallies for the school. The girls also did an excellent job adorning T.M.S.'s gym for the home games. By offering a kind word and a smile or just being to lend a helping hand these ladies gave their all to raise school spirit and pride in athleticism.

"We are continuing to get better. Watch for a competitive program next year."
- Coach Burton

Bulldog wrestling had a decent year, despite being strapped again by limited numbers. Giving up 8 weight classes, they still managed a 5-19 record. Although lacking in team wins, individual wrestlers compiled an overall winning record, combining for 105-88 in matches. All-SWD wrestlers were Lance Hurley, Brandon McDaniel, Joe Beasley, Allen Griffith, and Josh Thompson, with Hurley and Beasley advancing to State. It is hoped that there will be greater interest next year now that we have sent wrestlers to the State tournament, and that the program will grow in number of participants.

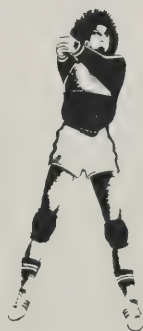

"Happiness is not that you win or lose, but the spirit of the sport and teamwork."
- Coach McDaniel

The 2001-2002 volleyball season was one of challenge. Although strong in numbers and led by enthusiastic new coaches McDaniel and Wade, the girls struggled to put games in the win column. Their spirit and camaraderie remained strong and should lead to greater success for those who return next year.

Catherine Rinehart had 142 serving points, earning her a position on 1st Team All-SWD. Jennifer Miller, Morgan Browning, and Ashley Steele received Honorable Mention for the SWD.

Students display pride in their nation by wearing red, white, and blue.

"We put the breakfast together so I guess it's all right if I take this."

The studs of the Homecoming parade.

Let's hear a "yahoo" for the Wahoos.

Spirited band members make Homecoming rock!

"Help, the run through's got me!" (Team members enter Witten Field through cheerleaders' run-through.)

"Please don't poke me with the pin." (Homecoming Queens enact the yearly succession of royalty.)

Court members shiver through coldest Homecoming in recent memory.

"I was very happy and I am just thankful for all my friends and family that were there for me." - Ashley Steele

Flags and hair are blowin' in the wind.

"Hold on Michael, we're going for a ride!"

Cheerleaders are all bundled up in their sweats and ear muffs.

Bre, don't stop smiling; your face will freeze that way!"

"Which way? Where? Huh?"

"I hope the crown doesn't blow away."

DONKEY BASKETBALL

"What an asinine spectacle!"
CADRE Sponsor Ms. Webb

"What astounding donkeys!"

Chris masters his donkey.

PEAK MIKE

"No pain, no gain," but still looking good!. (Peak Staff makes the traditional trek to the source of our inspiration.)

"Pool, anyone?" (Staff deserves a break after tough climb.)

Catherine relaxes once the staff reaches the top.

Heidi is overwhelmed by the beauty of Thompson Valley, "on the other side of the mountain."

Lindsey and Courtney buddy up for warmth.

With T.H.S. and its surroundings far below, the yearbook staff exhilarates in their first great achievement.

We put a lot of faith in this unique staff.

"Andrea, please don't let go!"

"I hear that bears live in these caves!"

Stuck between a rock and, well, ... a rock, in caves just below the Peak

2001 Spring Events

Why is the spring of 2001 included in the 2002 yearbook?

Spring events cannot be covered in the regular book since the final deadline for pages is in February. For several years T.H.S. students have been able to receive a supplement of spring events distributed the following fall. However, financial situations made the creation of the supplement impossible for 2001. We are attempting to provide a brief record here of those events, and hope to resume the production of a Spring Supplement for 2002.

Sports Action

Tazewell gets ready for the bunt.

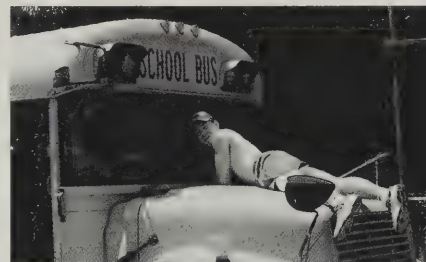

"Thank goodness I only have 100m left!"

"You're mine!! Hahaha."

"I'm sending this ball straight for the catcher's mitt; no bat in between."

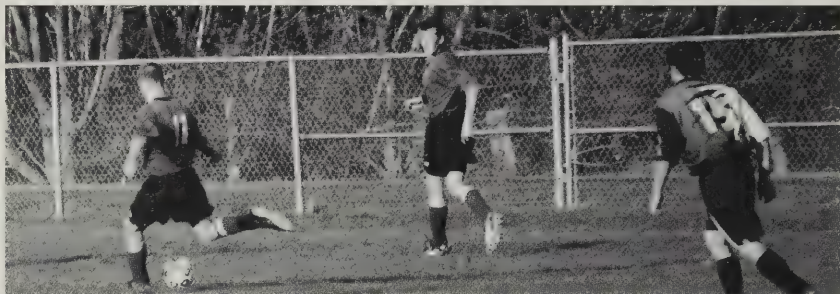

Is Randy sunbathing?

Craig saves the ball from going out.

Kali poses for a tennis glamour shot?

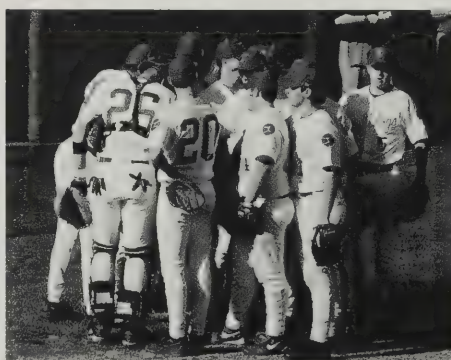

Isaac and Marc charge Carroll County's defense full force.

Manny tries to keep the ball in bounds.

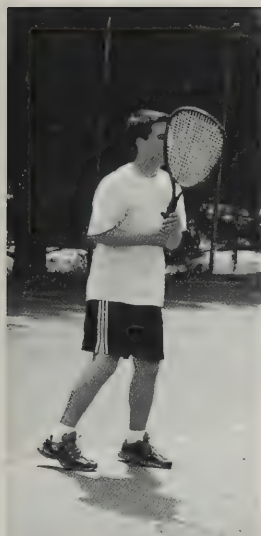

Throw it to me, hurry!

Hits on three...

"I just need a few more feet."

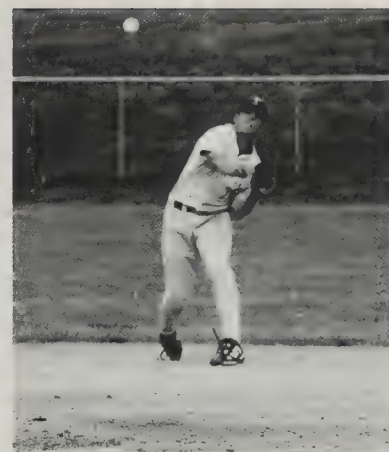

Mark is ready for the shot.

Michael takes the ball and control of the field.

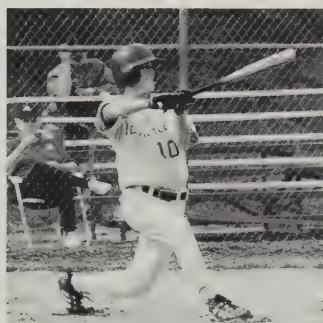

"I can't look!"

Please don't let me miss this one.

"Look, I'm in the lead!"

It's going, going....

Pregame prayer provides a time to calm down and come together.

"Oops, that wasn't what I meant to do."

Perfect landing!

"Where did it go?"

Robert makes his move.

Cody warms up.

"Oh well, at least I got to it."

Safe!

Isaac shows off his fancy foot work.

"I would rather be lifting."

Ashley launches a few warm up throws.

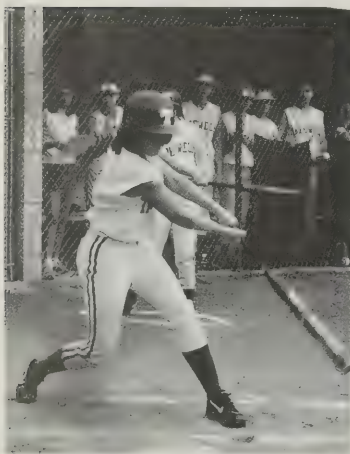

Joe is caught off balance.

Megan waits for the whistle.

"Where do you want the bag?"

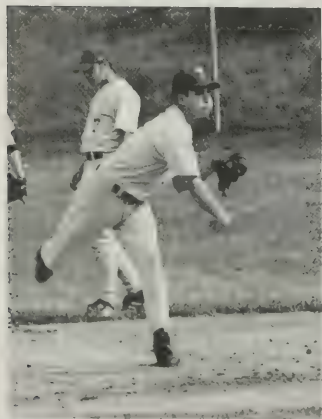

Smack!

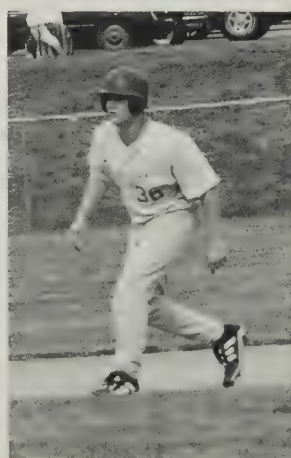

The complete girl's tennis team and...

... most of the boys.

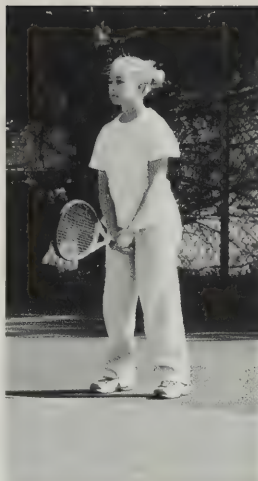

"Safe, safe, safe."

Greetings from the bench.

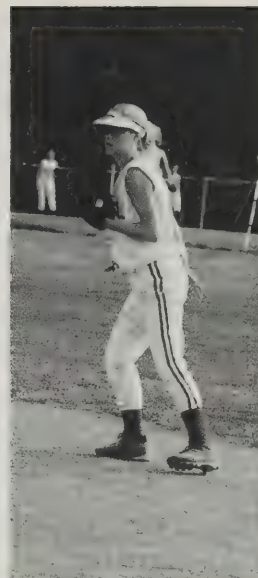

Joe and Seth make a Falcon sandwich.

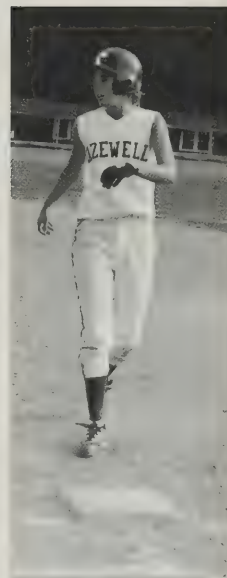

Please, somebody hit me the ball.

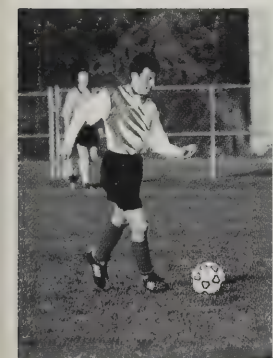

Josh winds up for the throw to first.

"Which way will it go?"

"That was tough!"

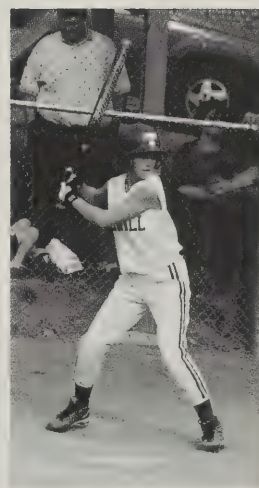

Put your best foot forward.

Four arms are better than two.

The first base stretch.

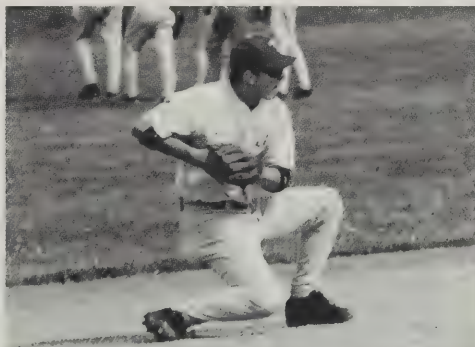

Batter up!

Isaac goes one-on-one.

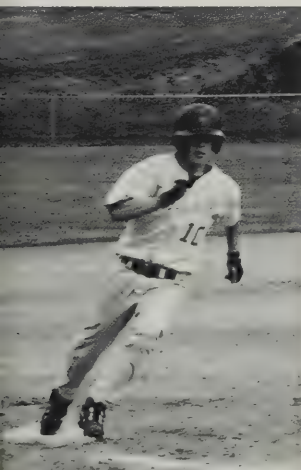

Carr bears down for the 100m sprint.

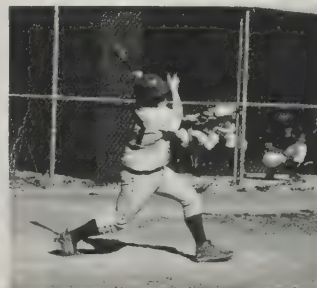

Jake can scoop the ball up and throw all in one motion.

Goalie Matt makes a save.

Casey rounds the third base and heads for home.

...To stand out in the crowd.

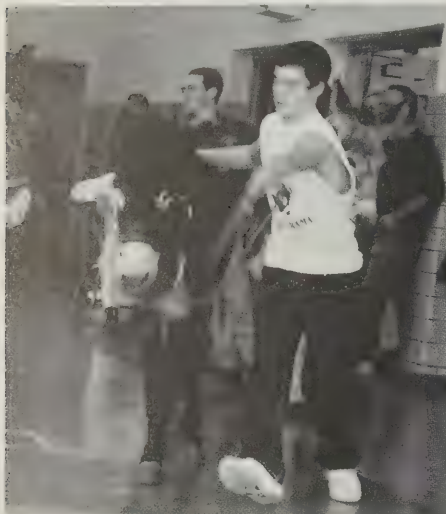

...To sing from our hearts.

Through Our We Have

...To enjoy bus rides.

...To astonish the crowd.

...To eat well-balanced meals.

...To respect others so that you may find respect in yourself.
 ...To learn the value of giving, so that if ever there comes a time in your life when someone is really in need, you will give.
 ...To act in a manner that you would wish to be treated; to be proud of yourself.
 ...To laugh and smile as you can, in order help bring joy to back into this world.
 ...To have faith in others; to be understanding.

...To watch CMT (a little too much).

...To work as a team.

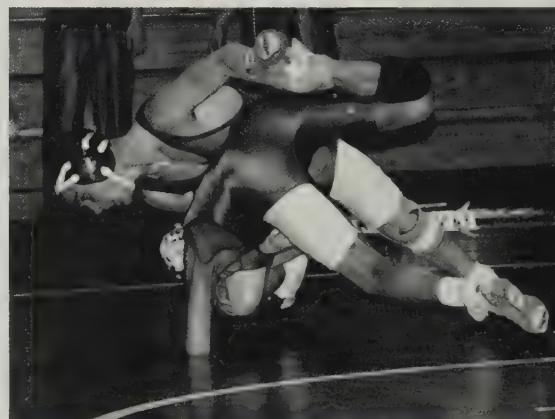

...To always take notes.

...To have fun.

...To become our characters.

...To overcome adversity.

REFLECTIONS

Learned...

...To huddle for warmth.

...To capture the pressing moments as best we can.

...To count enough sheep.

...To stand tall in this world and to learn to depend on yourself.

...To only take from this earth those things which you really need, so there will be enough for others.

...To depend not on money or material things for your happiness, but to appreciate the people who love you, the simple beauty around you, and to find the peace and security within yourself.

...To have as many close friends as possible.

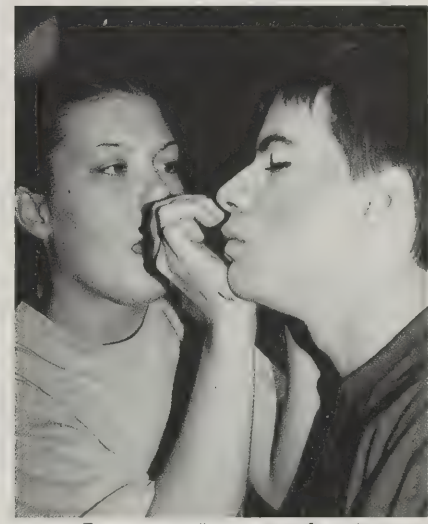

...To get a clue.

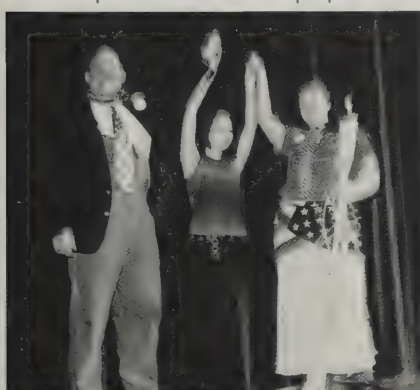

...To push ourselves for a purpose.

...To smile for the camera.

...To accept all aspects of a role.

...To embrace our Southern heritage.

...To fiddle with technology.

...To learn about nature's intricacies and also to appreciate rubber gloves.

You have memories that will prove unique (and sometimes messy).

You have friends to help through tangled times.

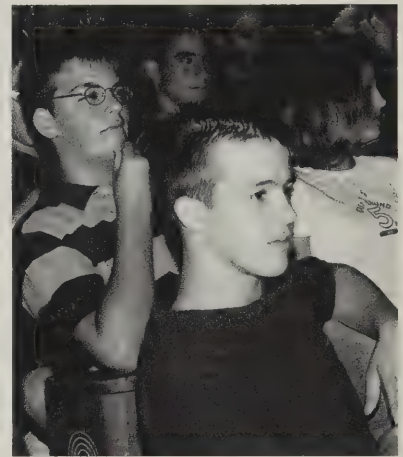

You have your health.

You have people who love you.

You have your looks (but that's not all)!

You own a mind for contemplation.

You have a ticklish spot.

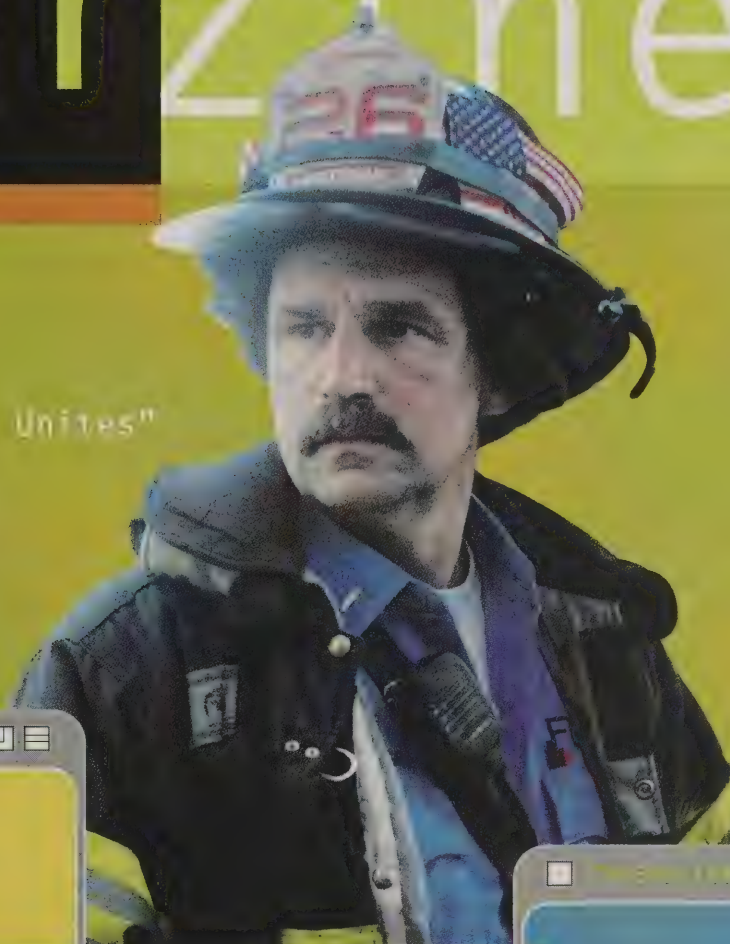

You have a future.

You're a very special person.
 You have the qualities that get better every day!
 You have the courage and strength to see things through. You have smiles that will serve as your guides.
 You have a light that will shine in you 'til the end of time.
 You have known the truth of yesterday, and you have an inner map that will lead the way to a very beautiful tomorrow...
 You have what it takes, because
 You have you.

< Stealing much of the headlines were the events on and after Sept. 11th. More than 3,000 people lost their lives at the twin towers of the World Trade Center, the Pentagon and aboard the four hijacked commercial airliners. Also getting the spotlight were the rescue workers and volunteers who were recognized by all Americans as heroes. Sadly, it also marked the end of R&B sensation Aaliyah, another one of the Beatles' fab four, George Harrison, and legendary comedian, Jack Lemmon. <

< After Sept. 11, sitcoms offered plenty of laughs. "Undeclared" centered on quirky college roommates faced with the freedoms of being away from home for the first time. The bewitching comedy, "Sabrina," conjured up strange changes as she became a college sophomore. "Gilmore Girls" explored the odd relationship between a mom with a heart of a teenager and a teenage daughter that acts like an adult. "Angel" used its dark humor to reveal the twists and turns of a vampire avenger in L.A. <

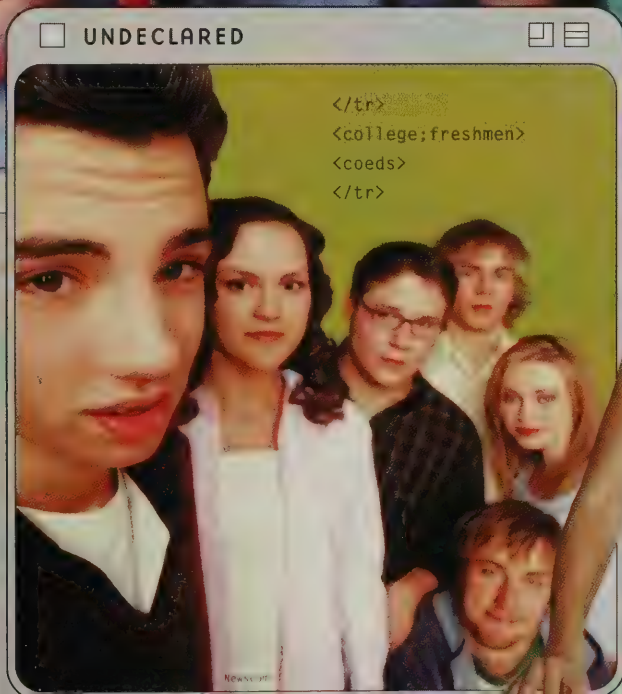

> NEW SITCOMS > "Scrubs" puts a wildly inventive and hilarious spin on hospital life. Instead of assaulting viewers with jokes, "Bernie Mac's" life unravels in unexpected, offbeat ways while he raises his sister's kids.

< As with everything else, it was a strange year for music. How else can you describe the success of the soundtrack "O Brother, Where Art Thou?" and Michael Jackson's less than "Invincible" return as the King of Pop? But that didn't stop 'N Sync, Britney Spears, Usher and the like from commanding the airwaves. Country music got a kick from Tim McGraw who was named CMA Entertainer of the Year, while ears couldn't get enough of newcomer Alicia Keys' "Songs in A Mirror." >

Selected from nearly 2,000 hopefuls, this boy band lived out their musical dreams before the eyes of millions of viewers in the reality show, "Making The Band." Making it big after a hit single, "Liquid Dreams."

It was another blockbuster year in Hollywood. "Pearl Harbor's" stunning special effects were a big hit. Singer Mandy Moore teamed up with Shane West in a sweet, idealistic love story that brings out the young romantic in everyone. Speaking of true love, young and old fell head over heels for "Shrek." Also in the field of computer-generated optical illusion, "Final Fantasy" proved to be another artistic masterpiece. In contrast, Angelina Jolie brought the video game "Tomb Raider" to life, transforming into the tough archaeologist/adventurer Lara Croft. <

Technology continues to evolve at dizzying speeds. More compact and personal, mp3 players are killing the portable CD star. Now, CDs and mp3 files ripped off the net can be transported from the PC to your ears anywhere you go. Not to mention, portable DVD players let you catch your favorite movies on the run. Dean Kampen also unveiled the Segway Human Transporter that totally reinvents the wheel. Apple is changing the way people view technology with a new iMac designed around a 15-inch LCD flat screen. Amazing. <

VIDEO GAME SYSTEMS > Microsoft's Xbox went head-2-head against Nintendo's GameCube and Sony's PS2 for control of the multibillion dollar game console market. Each delivers speed combined with graphically rich gaming environments that further blur the line between virtual and actual reality.

< What were the haute fashion trends? For starters, low-rise jeans were in. And credit Madonna for causing people to switch from the baseball cap to the tattered, straw cowboy hat. The look changed after Sept. 11. People showed their true colors with the return of Old Glory and by wearing "I Love NY" t-shirts. The hair: rough, tumbled and tousled emerged to contrast elegant styles for a balanced look. For zooming around, let's not forget the shoes. >
